

Conference | August 19-21, 2024
Loyola University Chicago

Medieval Theories of Consciousness 1200–1350

Visit tinyurl.com/3w94evym to register and receive more information

LOYOLA
UNIVERSITY CHICAGO

Preparing people to lead extraordinary lives

NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES

Mon, Aug 19

09:15 Welcome

Chair: Therese Cory (Notre Dame) | 09:30 - 10:15 Dominik Perler (HU Berlin): What Is It Like to Be in Pain? Medieval Debates about Phenomenal Consciousness | 11:15 - 12:30 Peter King (Toronto): Why the Mind-Body Problem Still Isn't Medieval

Chair: Seyed N Mousavian (LUC) | 14:15 - 15:30 Lydia Deni Gamboa (Puebla): The First-Person Perspective in Chatton's Theory of Consciousness | 16:00 - 17:15 Jordan Lavender (Purdue): Color, Qualia, and Subjectivity in Fourteenth-Century Scholasticism

Tue, Aug 20

Chair: Jeff Brower (Purdue) | 09:30 - 10:45 Martin Pickavé (Toronto): Henry of Ghent on Self-Knowledge and Self-Presence | 11:15 - 12:30 Christian Rode (Bonn): Higher-Order or Same-Order Theory: Peter of John Olivi on Self-Knowledge and Self-Experience

Chair: Kristen Irwin (LUC) | 14:15 - 15:30 Martin Klein (Würzburg): Episodic Memory and State Consciousness in Scotus and Others | 16:00 - 17 Susan Brower-Toland (Saint Louis): Mind's Reflexivity: Self-Knowledge & Consciousness in Later Medieval Philosophy

Wed, Aug 21

Chair: TBA | 09:30 - 10:45 André Martin (Prague): Consciousness and Vital Acts in Medieval Cognitive Theory | 11:15 - 12:30 Peter Hartman (LUC): Non-Representational Theories of Consciousness

Venue

Simpson Hall on the third floor of Lewis Towers

111 E Pearson Street, Chicago IL 60611

The entrance is through LUMA on the corner of Pearson and Tower Ct.

Contact

medievalconsciousness2024@gmail.com

Organizers

Peter Hartman, Martin Klein, Jordan Lavender