

Medieval Theories of Consciousness: 1200 – 1350

Würzburg, Department of Philosophy, Residenz Würzburg

March 11-13, 2025

Program

Tuesday, March 11

09:30 Welcome & Coffee

Chair: Diego D'Angelo (University of Würzburg)

01 10:00 – 11:15 | Lecture | Magdalena Bieniak (University of Warsaw): William of Auvergne on the Simplicity of Self-Awareness

02 11:30 – 12:30 | Discussion | André Martin (Charles University Prague): Consciousness and Cognitive Activity: Olivi and Auriol on the Soul's Spiritual and Vital Acts

Chair: Dag Nikolaus Hasse (University of Würzburg)

03 14:00 – 15:00 | Discussion | Dominik Perler (Humboldt University Berlin): What Is it Like to Be in Pain? A Thirteenth-Century Debate

04 15:00 – 16:00 | Discussion | Martin Pickavé (University of Toronto): Self-Knowledge and Self-Presence of the Soul and Its Acts in late 13th-Century Philosophy

Chair: Jörn Müller (University of Würzburg)

05 16:30 – 17:30 | Discussion | Jordan Lavender (Texas A&M University): Phenomenal Consciousness and Intrinsic Properties: A Medieval Third Way Between Physicalism and Property Dualism

06 17:45 – 19:00 | Lecture | Sonja Schierbaum (University of Würzburg): At the root of reason: Ockham (and Crusius) on the role of consciousness

Wednesday, March 12

Chair: Fabian Hutmacher (University of Würzburg)

07 10:00 – 11:15 | Lecture | Mark Textor (King's College London): Self-Representationalism – Now with Feeling

08 11:30 – 12:30 | Susan Brower-Toland (Saint Louis): Mind's Reflexivity: Consciousness and Self-Knowledge in Later Medieval Philosophy

Chair: Anna-Katharina Strohschneider (University of Würzburg)

09 14:00 – 15:00 | Discussion | Peter Hartman (Loyola University Chicago): Pre-Reflective Awareness in the 14th-Century

10 15:00 – 16:00 | Discussion | Lydia Deni Gamboa (Benemérita Universidad Autónoma de Puebla): The First-Person Perspective in Ockham's and Chatton's Theories of Consciousness

11 16:30 – 17:45 | Lecture | Therese Cory (University of Notre Dame): Why We Should Think Medieval Philosophers Were Aware of Consciousness

Thursday, March 13

Chair: Michela Summa (University of Würzburg)

12 10:00 – 11:15 | Lecture | Gianfranco Soldati (University of Fribourg), First Personal Reflexive Knowledge about Oneself

13 11:30 – 12:30 | Discussion | Christian Rode (University of Bonn), Higher-Order or Same-Order Theory? Peter of John Olivi on Self-Knowledge and Self-Experience

14 14:00 – 15:00 | Discussion | Martin Klein (University of Würzburg), Self-Consciousness and Memory