

Medieval Theories of Consciousness: 1200 – 1350

Würzburg, Department of Philosophy, Residenz Würzburg

March 11-13, 2025

Program

Tuesday, March 11

09:30 Welcome & Coffee

- 01 10:00 – 11:15 | Lecture | Magdalena Bieniak (Warsaw): William of Auvergne on the Simplicity of Self-Awareness
- 02 11:30 – 12:30 | Discussion | Susan Brower-Toland (Saint Louis): Mind's Reflexivity: Consciousness and Self-Knowledge in Later Medieval Philosophy
- 03 14:00 – 15:00 | Discussion | Dominik Perler (Berlin): What Is it Like to Be in Pain? A Thirteenth-Century Debate
- 04 15:00 – 16:00 | Discussion | Martin Pickavé (Toronto): Self-Knowledge and Self-Presence of the Soul and Its Acts in late 13th-Century Philosophy
- 05 16:30 – 17:30 | Discussion | Jordan Lavender (College Station), Phenomenal Consciousness and Intrinsic Properties: A Medieval Third Way Between Physicalism and Property Dualism
- 06 17:45 – 19:00 | Lecture | Therese Cory (Notre Dame): Why We Should Think Medieval Philosophers Were Aware of Consciousness

Wednesday, March 12

- 07 10:00 – 11:15 | Lecture | Mark Textor (London): Self-Representationalism – Now with Feeling
- 08 11:30 – 12:30 | Discussion | Peter Hartman (Chicago): Non-Representational Theories of State Consciousness
- 09 14:00 – 15:00 | Discussion | André Martin (Prague): Consciousness and Cognitive Activity: Olivi and Auriol on the Soul's Spiritual and Vital Acts

10 15:00 – 16:00 | Discussion | Lydia Deni Gamboa (Puebla): The First-Person Perspective in Ockham's and Chatton's Theories of Consciousness

11 16:30 – 17:45 | Lecture | Sonja Schierbaum (Würzburg): Consciousness and Virtuous Acts in Ockham

Thursday, March 13

12 10:00 – 11:15 | Lecture | Gianfranco Soldati (Fribourg), First Personal Reflexive Knowledge about Oneself

13 11:30 – 12:30 | Discussion | Christian Rode (Bonn), Higher-Order or Same-Order Theory? Peter of John Olivi on Self-Knowledge and Self-Experience

14 14:00 – 15:00 | Discussion | Martin Klein (Würzburg), Memory and Self-Consciousness